ACTIVITY REPORTS

Trekker is at the printers

1. Canoeing-Frank- More canoe videos etc. are available on line. There is a water gauge link.
2. Cycling- Tony- BJ Swingle is Capt of MS team. Remax is pairing up with the OCSJ team. Benefits include reduced registration fee, a jersey &

food stops

3. Cross Country Skiing-Eileen-Apres ski party had 50 attendees and was a success. 17 new trips scheduled. We have new leaders-Connie Mott, and Paul & Sue Dice
4. Hiking-Not available.

G. BUSINESS

1. May Pizza Party- Comments: People would like a meeting. It was a good social occasion for the price; Need more pizza.
2. Picnic at Belle Plain State Park Oct. 1st - Need more volunteers then we had at Parvin. Activities need to be scheduled differently and spread out more. May have a kayak clinic at the beach.
3. Anita Berson volunteered for the booth at the Bordentown Green Fair. A booth at Jersey Paddler next year would be beneficial.
4. Bill Poulson will contact The Marlton Sun and others for possible calendar listings of OCSJ events and check The Patch.com for possible listings.
5. Promotions for new members could be teaming up with The Wildlife conservancy or Hospital Wellness Programs. Holding events where rentals are available may help. Batso has canoe rentals, Washington S.P has bike rentals.
6. Finance Review- The possibility of changing from 3 accounts to 2 was discussed but not adopted. A budget committee will work on the budget for next year. Tony Marchionne volunteered to help with this.

H. NEW BUSINESS

1. Nora Kolano will be accepting tickets , Connie Lotz is helping with organization of the holiday party.
Frank has sheet printed for the application.
Frank and Cathy will organize the kitchen and kitchen help.
