New Business-Diane Ewell will stay as membership chair until end of July but the club needs an automated system.

Many possibilities were discussed for automated systems. Wild Apricot was the most user friendly.

Motion to use Wild Apricot Co. as OCSJ automated system for membership at a cost of $130 per month for 2000 members was made by Kathy Billman, seconded by David Bicking and approved.

Regina Coeby was appointed to the board of trustees.

Membership policy and Greve fund policy were tabled.

Donations to Don Fiory were discussed. The family would like memories of him that people have while he was involved with OCSJ. Fran and possibly Jim Bodnar are planning a memorial bike ride for Don Fiori.

Motion to adjourn was made by Chris Denneler and seconded by Millie Moore at 8:50 pm and approved. Respectfully submitted,

Eloise Williams, Recording Secretary

Barbara Brandt, President
